The Blogathon 2020 was impossible for us without the efforts and valuable inputs from all the Head of the Departments and college faculties. We also thank our BVM Alumni for supporting us in our event and make it a grand success. We are here extending our great acknowledgment and appreciation to following persons with their memorial inputs that are very significant in making this event possible.

We are thankful to Er. Bhikhubhai Patel (Chairman, Charutar Vidya Mandal) who has constantly motivated and supported us to conduct events in order to inculcate knowledge amongst the youth, especially during this period of pandemic.

Next and the acknowledged Dr. Indrajit Patel (Principal, BVM Engineering college) who has been very supportive to us, he is also always ready for solving problem-related to events and conclude it, ascertaining him a commemorative plaque at deep of our heart.

We also acknowledge Dr. Jagdish Rathod & Dr. Darshan Dalwadi, who are Faculty Advisor and Branch Counselor respectively. They have been giving tremendous opportunity for organizing the Events by their professional and Academic guidance, fairness and responsiveness to kind of queries also remains them as a role model, therefore we are extending our gratitude to them.

Lastly thanks to all delegates and the hardworking team Blogathon 2020 for sparing their valuable time and make the event possible during the pandemic.

About Blogathon 2020

Team IEEE BVM SB planned to organize an online flagship event "Blogathon: Personal Development For Smart People", A National Level Blog Writing Competition. This event went live from 26 April 2020 to 6 May 2020. This event was specially organized to promote professionalism amongst the students and spread awareness about blog writing.

In this unprecedented time of the pandemic, implementing and showcasing knowledge is just as important as gaining knowledge. The submissions that we considered were not limited to only technical blogs but also on the non-technical aspects of the world. The experts that will evaluate the entries are no stranger to this field of literature and are excelling in their domains of research. By being a part of this competition, the students, faculties, and professional workers will get an insight into the world of blog writing.

Not only it will help them understand the formal approach to write a methodological or fictional piece of literature but also sharpen their skills in terms of creativity. We also believe this will inspire everyone to write something that might hold the potential to have a huge impact on the technical community of the world as IEEE is followed by the tagline, "Advancing Technology for Humanity".

Last but not least, Team IEEE BVM SB has planned to carry out a novel act by donating all the profit earned by this competition towards the PM CARES Fund to help our Prime Minister by adding to the tireless efforts made by him. This contribution from us will be a part of the essential resources needed to help our Nation in the present situation and it would be an honor for us to know we could help.

Pre Blogathon Session: Blog Talk

Name: Mr Vaibhav Shah

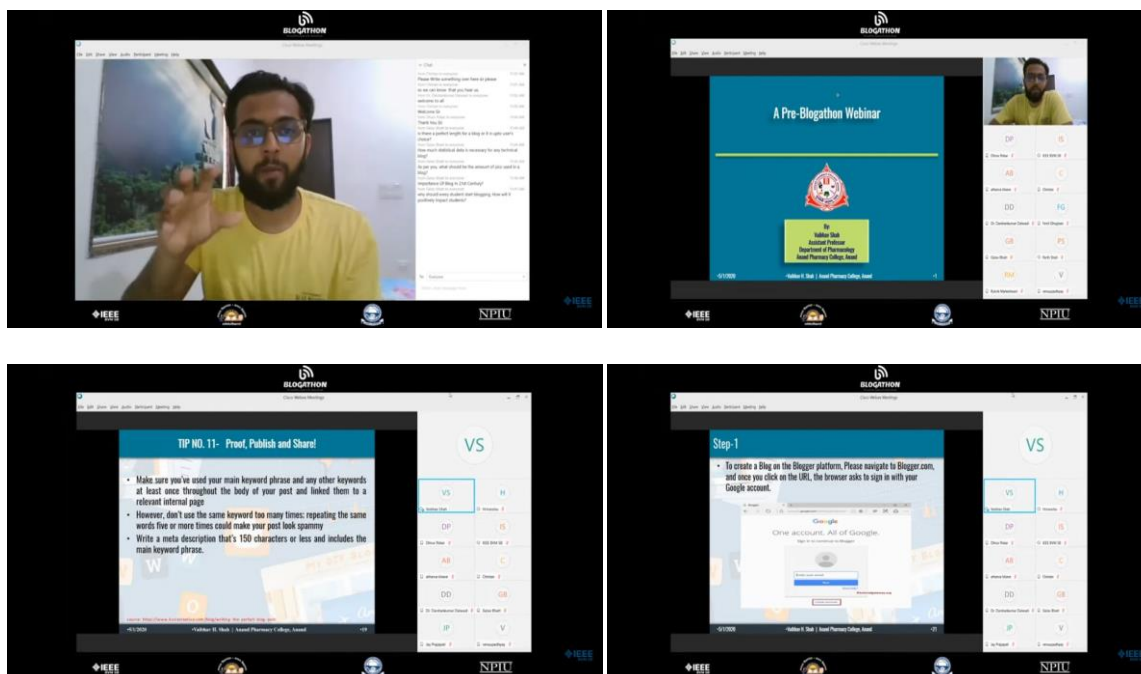

Designation: Scientific & Affiliate Blogger

Date: 1st May 2020

Moderators: Jay Prajapati and Galav Bhatt

A Pre-Event Training session was organized called ‘Blog Talk’ in order to provide the participants an insight about ‘How to write and publish a Blog’ with basic content writing skills. The webinar was organized on 1st May 2020. As Blogathon focuses on “Personal Development of Smart People” to make all the participants familiar and develop their skills and talent of blogging it was very much necessary to organize a webinar on same topic.

Mr. Vaibhav Shah is a scientific & affiliate blogger. He is also a brand ambassador of Kenzus street wear. He is currently working as a professor at Anand Pharmacy College. The session began with a warm welcome by Dr. Darshan Dalwadi to the speaker. In part 1 of session, various tips and thumb rules for writing a decent blog were addressed. In part 2, session concluded with a Question and Answer session.

Ending with a QnA session

Blogathon Event Details

This event was specifically organized to promote professionalism amongst the students and spread awareness about blog writing.

The registration period for the event was from 26th April 2020 to 2nd May 2020. The submission portal was open from 30th April 2020 to 3rd May 2020 to allow participants submit their blogs. Later on, from the 4th May, the review started. On 6th May, the result declaration took place.

To participate in this event the students had to pay Rs.50/- & for the rest of participants the fees was Rs.100/-. The money collected by this event was donated to PM CARES Fund. This will help our nation fight this pandemic situation with great power. To promote this event at a greater scale, we had invited famous bloggers from across the country. It definitely helped us achieve greater heights in order to elevate this event to the next level.

After the blog had been submitted there was a review process of all the blogs which was done by the judges. The review process was categorized into 3-Phases which helped to filter out the best blog amongst all.

The result was declared through mails. The top three blog from each category got an assured prize, feature on IEEE BVM Website & IEEE BVM New Letter. All blogs will be awarded by an acknowledgement certificate.

Results & Awards of Blogathon

We thank the faculty members who were present in the review panel and scrutinized the blogs based upon various parameters to select the best 3 blogs from both categories: Technical & Non-Technical. The results were declared on the IEEE BVM SB – Blogathon website on 6th May 2020 at 2:00 PM afternoon. All the faculty and student members congratulated the winners.

As a gesture of appreciation and part of award, the Top 3 blogs from both: Tech & Non Tech category will be featured on IEEE BVM Website & IEEE BVM Newsletter and will be awarded with a Framed Certificate of Achievement. The rest participants who actively participated and published their blogs would be awarded with an E-certificate of Appreciation as a gesture of motivation. As mentioned above, after the lockdown circumstances due the pandemic would be over, the certificates would be handed over to each of them.

VIRAANGANA KI DASTAAN

Yes, you guessed it right. Viraangana in Hindi is warrior and every woman is a born warrior. Her battle begins from the moment she is born, for some unfortunate parents do not wish to see her live. Even if she somehow manages to survive, her struggle does not end there. Growing up alongside her (male) sibling, she faces injustice; she is forced to make sacrifices. As an adult, an uglier reality awaits her, the bitter truths of the world, crimes against women, inequality, glass ceiling and whatnot. But Viraangana fights through it all. She breathes through the pain and emerges victorious. This blog is a tribute to all such Viraanganas. Be it a mother, a sister, a daughter, a successful corporate executive, an entrepreneur or a house help, every woman is a Viraangana.

Perspective: Blueprint of Your Truth and Your Life

We have all experienced a moment that changed our outlook about looking at something in a particular way. It feels like we are suddenly in a new world with entirely new possibilities. It doesn't mean that the earlier perspective we had was wrong. It just means, we were looking at it differently. The image really describes what that means.

One person identifies it as 6 and the other one as 9. But which perspective is the
